THE NUSHKA

1951

McDowell County Public Library
90 West Court Street
Marion, NC 28752

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF
GLENWOOD HIGH SCHOOL
GLENWOOD, N. C.

Foreword

It is not our desire, nor do we even try to begin a new volume of the NUSHKA, rather we offer only a continuation of last years record of pleasant memories at Glenwood Hi School.

In later years should you feel refreshed as you again turn these pages to renew your memories, we, the staff of the 1951 NUSHKA shall feel that we have succeeded.

Dedication

To our parents, for whom we feel deep appreciation for their love, faith, untiring efforts and interests in us, as well as their patience and encouragement as we near graduation, and the faith that we know they will have in us as we face the future, we, the Seniors of 1951, do lovingly dedicate this volume of the NUSHKA.

Class Poem

To Glenwood High we say adieu,
We hate to leave you know,
To look for adventures new,
Our learning here to show.

We hope through life we do not fail,
But instead we find success.
So to you "Glenwood" we do hail
The past days of happiness.

Our teachers to us much have meant
Hoping some knowledge we've learned,
Such hard trying days they have spent.
So our future can more easily be earned.

So as the parting draweth near,
We close the pages of our books,
And remembering "school days dear,"
We face the future with less fear.

History

On a September day in 1939 school year began with a happy, good looking and frightened group of boys and girls entering the first grade at Glenwood School. The first grade was under the direction of Miss Wagner.

By the time the next year came around several had moved away and some had moved in. That year we were under the direction of Miss Landis.

Mrs. Hemphill was our teacher in the third grade. That year we made a lot of progress toward reaching the twelfth grade.

In the fourth grade we tried to learn a little about Geography. Mrs. Steppe was our director.

Now we realized just how little we knew when we reached the fifth grade. That year we made a success with the help of Miss Beam.

Mrs. Lois Shaw was our sixth grade teacher.

In the seventh grade Mrs. Dessie Lawing guided us in the deep waters of mathematics, history, geography and English.

In the eighth grade the students from Sugar Hill who joined us were: Betty Morgan, Agnes Wilkerson, Bill James, Robert Parker, Ruby Marlowe, Edith Jones, Betty Wilkerson, Helen Ledbetter, Annie Fay Ledbetter, Earl Queen, Rupert Hall, Earl McKinney, Eunice Reel, Jimmy Styles, Laurence Parker, Paul Jolley, Ray Wilson, and Doris Hemphill. The students from Dysartville were Billy Guffey, Ivan Landis, Geneva Lewis, and Maxine Huskins. Doris Rumpfelt, Erie Chapman and Louise Fisher joined us from other schools.

The students who dropped out this year were: Ben Pyatt, Nina Fay Day, Ray Day, Ray Wilson, Earl Queen. This year we had several teachers but Mrs. Laura Gentry was our final teacher.

We entered high school while Mr. W. V. Nix was principal. Our sponsor was Mrs. Truby Painter. Our Student Council member was Reba Bowman.

We entered the tenth grade under the supervision of Miss Wilma Byrd. This year we set out for a good year of work with a new principal, Mr. W. P. Whitesides. Our officers were: President, Robert Parker; Vice President, Doris Rumpfelt; Secretary and Treasurer, Betty Morgan; Student Council Members, Reba Bowman and Dean Elliott.

By this time our enrollment had dropped to 24. We had two to join us from Marion Hi—Clarence Lamb and Charles Walker. We were very glad to have them. Mrs. Bradsher was our Junior sponsor. We had two class projects to complete this year—the Junior Play, "Pleased To Meetcha," given in the school auditorium on November 22, 1949, and the Junior-Senior Banquet which followed the "Dutch Motif" at the Glenwood Cafeteria, April 27, 1950. Another event of the Junior year was ordering our rings. The class officers were: President, Bennie Parker; Vice President, Louise Killian; Secretary and Treasurer, Ruby Gilliam; Student Council Members, Reba Bowman, Dean Elliott and Millie Lawing.

The Class of 1950 began its final year under the guidance of Miss Wilma Byrd. The election of class officers and the Annual Staff were among the important business of the year.

During the years the class enrollment rose as high as 50 in the eighth grade and dropped to 24 in the twelfth. Of the original class which began school in the fall of 1939 at Glenwood, Millie Lawing, Marvin Jamison, Deau Elliott, Frances Laughridge, Bobby Eplee, Carl Rash, Bennie Parker, Neal Morgan, are all that remain.

As you read this history, you will remember that the twenty-four seniors were planning a second semester full of work and pleasure. Along with the Senior Play, the Junior-Senior Banquet and graduation, the thought of Homecoming, the first in the history of the school. The Nushka went to press too early to record any of these events but not too early to read the anticipation of the pleasure and sense of accomplishment that accompanies them.

Senior Class Prophecy

As I was walking home one spring afternoon in the year of 1965 from my work as public health nurse for New York City, I happened to gaze upon a sign which read "Fortune Telling". At this time I became curious to know what had happened to my classmates of 1950-51, so I wandered up the rocky trail to the little green trailer, opened the door and walked in. As I gazed into the crystal ball I found that my classmates were scattered all over the United States. This is what I found happening to them.

A little politician, none other than Marvin Jamison, pacing the stairs in the White House at Washington, D. C. He must be anxiously waiting for his "Private Secretary," Millie Lawing, to powder her nose and come down to lunch. While gazing in the crystal ball I also found the boss of the automobile factory in Detroit, Michigan, Bennie Parker, earnestly begging Clarence Lamb to concentrate on his work and forget his fiancée, Connie Vess, who is owner of the Vess Style Shoppe in Jacktown, N. C., for the time being.

Can you imagine Bobby Eplee as professor at Harvard University and still unmarried?

I was really surprised to find the class of '51 has so many secretaries. They are—Frances Laughridge, secretary at First National Bank, Strown Town, N. C.; Lillian Seamon as secretary for R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company in Winston-Salem, N. C., and Agnes Wilkerson a secretary for the Robert Bowman Motor Company in Alabama. Nice secretaries, aren't they???

Through the crystal ball I found Donald Hickman as superintendent of the Bethlehem Steel Company in Baltimore, Maryland. He is married to the former Geneva Lewis. She keeps herself plenty busy. She drives the delivery truck for Donald. To my surprise, I found Doris Hemphill as the wife of a professor, both are teaching school at the University of California. Ruby Gilliam is in Paris, designing gowns for Mrs. Vanderfellow, Jr. Reba Bowman is teaching French at Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. She is married to a famous sculptor, Carl Rash. Dean Elliott is operator of the Greyhound Bus Lines, Betty Morgan is his bookkeeper. Junior Harris is now director for Paramount Movies, and is a bachelor. Charles Walker is now teaching dramatics. His whole interest is in teaching. He is now teaching at University of Arizona. Neal Morgan is now in the navy, he is stationed at San Francisco California. Doris Rumfelt is in the WAVES and stationed there too.

I find Leroy Williams working as assistant Manager for Supak and Sons, Minneapolis 1, Minnesota, and Ivan Landis is owner of Minute Topica Products, Inc., in New York.

I was very happy to find that my Senior Class were doing so well in the various vocations they had chosen.

Since that afternoon in April, 1965, I have not visited the little green trailer of the fortune teller. No, it is not that I cared less about my class, but that somehow, mysterious as it may seem, the little green trailer was not there the next day, nor have I been able to find it.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1951, being of sound mind and body, realizing our present position and all the fine work we have done during our brief stay here, and thinking we should leave our thanks and some of our many talents, do hereby make and publish this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE 1

To our parents, we leave our deepest appreciation for the opportunity that they have made possible for us to secure our education.

ARTICLE 2

To Mr. Whitesides and the faculty, we leave our sincere thanks for their efforts and patience in guiding and teaching us.

ARTICLE 3

To our class room teacher, Miss Wilma Byrd, we leave our thanks, everlasting admiration, and continued friendship.

ARTICLE 4

We, the aforesaid class, being several in number, do hereby will and leave our personal possessions.

I, Doris Hemphill, leave my "Popularity" with the boys to Sara Margaret Morris and Eleanor Silver. Here's hoping you succeed!

To Shirley Lawing, I, Millie Lawing, leave my title as "Miss Hi Miss."

I, Frances Laughridge, will my privilege of keeping the senior classroom clean to Catherine Laws and Joyce Rumfelt.

I, Louise Killian, leave My Conceitedness to Betty Anderson and Joanne Holland.

I, Agnes Wilkerson, leave my ability to succeed to Hazel Robbins and Nannie Pannell.

I, Geneva Lewis, leave my string of Dysartville boy friends to Winnie Belle Hogan and Betty Sue Baker.

I, Lillian Seaman, will my title of "Most Popular" to Jeanne Glenn and Blanche Marlowe.

I, Betty Morgan, will the responsibility of writing this will and testament to Helen Lawing, with the aid of Margaret Harris.

I, Clarence Lamb, leave my ability to run a class election (or any other) to Freddy Blanton.

I, Junior Harris, will my title of Neatest Boy in the Senior Class to Donald Rickett.

I, Neal Morgan, leave my personality to Edward Poteat.

I, Robert Bowman, leave my interest in sports and geometry to Rodger Poteat.

I, Donald Hickman, leave my desire to get out of typing class to Dean Swann.

I, Carl Rash, will my ability to dodge the girls to Harrill Morgan.

I, Dean Elliott, will Bus Number 15 to Donald Wilkerson—Handle With Care.

I, Reba Bowman, leave my quiet? ways to Mary Ruth Cox and Nadine Huffman.

I, Leroy Williams, leave my wit to Tommy Ferguson.

I, Bennie Parker, leave to Jackie Thomas my permission to use Axiom 7 at any time in geometry.

I, Charles Walker, leave my cuteness to Jimmy Mashburn.

I, Marvin Jamison, leave the responsibility of getting advertisements for the annual to Laurence Duval.

I, Connie Vess, will my ability to "get the gossip" (for the Echoes) to Elsie Kaylor and Gwendolyn Vess.

I, Doris Rumfelt, leave my love for Chevrolets to Lucille Greer and Pauline Woody—Take care of them, girls!

I, Ruby Gilliam, leave my love for World History to Jean Calhoun and Pansy Swann.

I, Bobby Eplee, leave my laziness to James Swann.

I, Ivan Landis, leave my mischievous ways to Donald Gallian.

We, the class of 1951, do hereby nominate and appoint our principal, Mr. W. P. Whitesides, sole executor of this our last will and testament, and instruct him to carry out its provisions to the letter.

In witness whereof we have hereto subscribed our names and affixed our seal this fifteenth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty.

Signed—

Dragons... Dragonettes

Here we are again—plugging for that top place in Conference Basketball.

First, before we begin with this year's story of the team, let us finish with last year's honors. The boys had a 66% winning card and got a Bye for the finals. The girls were minus one win to come up in the same position. Although few experienced players were back for positions, several newcomers could not be kept off the team.

Wayne Morris, captain, a truly superlative forward, chalked up many a 2-pointer for the Dragons.

Donald Wright, wearing the lucky "6" jersey, was the most happy-go-lucky player on the team. Besides good floor work, Donald proved to be a reliable long-shot man—they were his specialty—

Long, lean and lanky Walter Harris we lost fairly early in the season but he made the hardwood shine with some of his plays.

Hoyt Gragg, although the shortest man on the team, seemed to be in exactly the right place at the right time to keep the Dragons ahead. He never failed to pile up less than 15 points in every game. He chanced a shot from almost every point beyond the center line—but a corner shot was his best. He pulled down the high score banner and all-tournament player for the season.

Mickey Poteat and Ed Poteat, return players, were not idle during the season either. Roger Poteat, with a pop-up center shot, and Bennie Parker, with his jumping power for backboard rebounds, helped the team to a County Championship Trophy.

Nancy Blalock, who was noted for her ability to lay up a left-hand set shot, gave the Dragonettes many a win.

Sara Morris, who could capture a forward and keep her in tow, stopped many points which brought us upward toward the win.

Dottie Marlowe, we thought was too pretty to play basketball, but she showed us we were wrong, especially one night at North Cove.

Returning this year to the team's first string we have—Betty Jo Brookshire Joanne Holland, Nadine Huffman, Eleanor Silver, Jeanne Glenn, Betty Anderson, Barbara Marlowe, Willie Fay Kaylor, Peggy Holland, Ruth Marlowe and Doris Wilkerson.

To the Dragons we have Bob Bowman. Mickey Poteat, Ed Poteat, Roger Poteat, Bennie Parker, Max Parker, Homer Morgan, Wayne Laughridge, Johnny Cooke and Guy Lane.

The teams did a magnificent job last season, although the girls did not hold the championship along with the boys, who deservingly obtained it last year.

So far this year we hold an undefeated conference banner and hope to keep it.
